

THE 66th WINTER PARK SIDEWALK ART FESTIVAL

This year's panel of Schools Exhibit judges include:

Kevin "KV" Abbott

Kevin was born and raised in the mountains of Vermont. His formal training was in commercial photography and he worked as a studio photographer before serving as a photojournalist in the US Army.

His major focus is sculpture and his works have been included in well over 100 solo and group exhibitions and. He maintains seasonal studios in New York and at the Gallery on First in Sanford, FL.

Patrick Noze

Patrick is a third generation Haitian-born artist who came to the US in 1976.

Patrick attended Pratt Institute majoring in fine art with a minor in education. He served as Crealdé School of Art Senior Gallery Curator and now spends his time on private commissions. His primary focus is painting and sculpting. He is involved in the community and serves on the Advisory Council for Art in Cultural Affairs.

Barbara Tiffany

A central Florida girl, Barbara Tiffany's background was in commercial art before joining the Crealdé School of Art faculty in 2012 and she served in multiple capacities including manager of the Painting & Drawing program and senior curator for the school's gallery exhibitions. After retiring she continues teaching adult classes and workshops at the school.

Her art is featured in many local public and private collections.