

2023 WPSAF LEON THEODORE SCHOOLS EXHIBIT

The Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival has proudly showcased the artists and art programs of Orange County and Winter Park public and private schools since the first festival in 1960.

The skillful and unique art works created by these talented students will amaze you. The exhibit is named in memory of Leon Theodore, an inspirational teacher, artist and former member and president of the festival board. The student displays are located across the railroad tracks opposite the stage.

This year's panel of Schools Exhibit judges include: Shannon Rae Lindsey, the UCF Art Gallery Director, teaches undergraduate and graduate courses at the School of Visual Arts and Design at the University of Central Florida. Jesus Minguez, a Central Florida potter, teaches ceramics at Valencia College. He currently works for Laguna Clay Co. as the studio technician and teaches various workshops at art centers and schools around the country. Megan Paquette Stepe, a mixed-media artist, is a Course Director who works with Full Sail University, teaching Art history and history of Visual Communications.

A special thank you to the sponsors who support this exhibit, including the Joe and Sarah Galloway Foundation, Art Systems of Florida, the Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art, Orange County Public Schools and the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival Foundation.
